HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Corinne Hart, Widowed Daughter of Mr. G. F. Jones, Jamestown, Badly Burned.

A GREAT SHOCK TO JAMESTOWN.

Monday at 1 o'clock p. m., a telephone message conveyed the sad news of a horrible accident which had just occurred at the home of Mr. G. F. Jones, a prominent druggist at Jamestown.

His widowed daughter, Mrs. Corinne Hart, was in the front yard of the home, raking up and burning leaves. Her clothing became ignited, and as there were no other person on the place she started screaming, to the home of her sister, who lives close to the home of the victim. Her screams were heard and her sister, Mrs. Wheat and her brother-in-law, Mr. O. D. Smith, ran, meeting her. Mr. Smith removed his coat and smothered the flames, but not until Mrs. Hart's clothing were burned from her body. She was picked up and carried to her father's residence and medical aid summoned.

At 2 o'clock Monday the physicians had not determined the result, but stated that she was most horribly burned.

She is one of Jamestown's finest ladies and it is hoped that she will recover.

Last Friday she visited her aunts, Mrs. Margaret Tucker and Mrs. Kinzie Murrell, of this place, remaining until Sunday morning. She also has a number of other relatives in Columbia and many living out of town, all of whom will regret to read this sad news.

Later—Death came at 6:45 Monday afternoon, bringing more sorrow into more hearts than did any other death in the community for many years. A high minded Christian young woman, possessing a lovely disposition and blessed with all the graces that went to make up a beautiful character passed beyond the vale.

To the father who idolized this daughter, and to her loving sisters, devoted brother and all other relatives, we tender our heartfelt sympathy, assuring those who are weighted with such deep sorrow, that we believe Corinne's Christian life was a passport to the celestial city beyond the skies. The funeral services will probably not take place until in the morning (Wednesday).

Married in Hopkins County.

Mr. James A. Caldwell, a popular gentleman, a native of the Milltown section, Adair county, who has been teaching at Harrison, Ky., for several years, was married on the 19th inst. to Miss Lucile Wade, a very attractive and popular young lady of Hopkins county. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Louisville, where they spent two days, arriving at the groom's old home, this county, last Saturday night, where they were given a happy reception. They will probably remain in this county several weeks.

The groom is a first cousin of Misses Mollie Caldwell and Pearl Hindman, both of whom went to Milltown to be present at the reception and to extend a hearty welcome to their new relative. We understand that Mr. Caldwell has made many friends since his stay in Hopkins county, and that himself and bride were remembered with many useful presents.

The News extends its best wishes trusting that nothing will come into their lives as the years come and go, to mar their plighted love; and that they may live happily upon the earth, and when old age comes, it will be a sweet retrospect to refer to the day when their hearts were made one.

Death of a Prominent Physician.

Last Tuesday morning, in the city of Nashville, Tenn., Dr. J. R. Shepherd, who was a prominent physician, died, surrounded by his family and a few special friends. Dr. Shepherd was a very excellent gentleman. In early manhood he was married to Miss Lula Breeding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Breeding, who live at Breeding, and to them four children were born, all living. He is also survived by his wife. At the time of his marriage he was a citizen of Allen county. Several years ago he removed with his family to Nashville where he became prominent as a physician. He was a victim of heart trouble. Mr. R. P. Breeding and Mr. G. W. Dillon went to Nashville and was present at the funeral.

The proceeds arising from the sale of the dwelling house near Cane Valley will first be applied to the payments of The Standard Hardwood Co., $80.13 with interest from April 2nd, 1910. Also $125 clerks fees and $19.07 costs.

For the purchase price, the purchaser with approved surety or securities, must execute bond bearing legal interest from day of sale until paid, and having force and effect of a Judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms. W. A. Coffey, Master Commissioner.

Attention.

Program of an Anti-Tuberculosis mass Meeting to be held at the Christian Church the Fifth Sunday evening in this month, at 7:30.

1. Tuberculosis, What it is, and what it does, Dr. U. L. Taylor.
2. Predisposing, and Immediate causes, Dr. W. F. Cartwright.
3. Tuberculosis in Children, B. M. Currie.

4. How Tuberculosis may be treated and cured, J. H. Grady.
5. How Tuberculosis may be prevented, Tobias Huffaker.

6. What is being done to prevent Tuberculosis, H. C. Baker.

Every body is invited to attend these meetings. The medical profession is making great strides now to prevent a disease rather than to cure it.

Miss Erlene Grissom, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Grissom, celebrated her eighth anniversary last Wednesday evening. Quite a number of small guests were invited to her home on Water street, and several hours were happily passed in juvenile amusement. Refreshments were served.

Those present were: Corine Breeding, Frances Reed, Mary Summers, Frances Strange, Ella Miller, Mabel Rosenbaum, Dora Eubank, Anna Eubank, Louise Frazier and Lucy Hendrickson of Campbellsville; Marvin Sinclair, Otho Miller, Alonzo Summers, Henry Wilson, Claud Willis, Fred Willis, Sidney Dunbar, Rollin English and Eudaly Currie.

Mr. S. H. Rexroat, writes us from Hewitt, Okla., enclosing his subscription to the News. He says that he left his old home, in Russell county, twenty-two years ago, but that he hears from former friends nearly every week through the News. He also states that he often meets Russell county people in Oklahoma, as there are many Kentuckians in that State. He takes a great delight in reading the letters from Font Hill and Irvin's Store, the section of Russell County where he was reared. He says the Kentucky boys who are in Oklahoma are doing well—some are in politics, others farming, etc.

The Coming Reunion.

We three had agreed to spend a day at Green River bridge with a few of our friends, but since the announcement in the News of last week, many have expressed a desire to be present. Hence, we have decided to invite all veterans, whether gray or blue, with their families, to meet with us on that day. We promise that there will be no long-winded, set speeches to tax your patience. Our object is to spend the time in a social way. Every old soldier will be expected to give his personal experience as a soldier during the Civil War, and each to be limited to 5 minutes, for as a rule there are but few of us, either blue or gray, but can tell all he knows in that length of time. We intend the day to be strictly a social one. No speaking, no spell-binding, only the war reminiscences of each individual, as this will probably be the last meet of the kind that either of the old veterans will ever attend, the great majority having reached the Bible limit—some beyond.

No privileges will be granted on the grounds except possibly one lunch and lemonade stand.

Remember, there are to be no set speeches. Every old soldier in this and adjoining counties, with their families, are expected to meet with us, and all bring a basket of grub with them. All are expected to help in the matter of grub supply by fetching the old time Kentucky basket. Of course a string band is necessary, and we are anxious for some good singers to get together—as many as can be found, and rub up on those grand old war songs of both sides. If any one will volunteer to do this, man or woman, please send us your address that we may help you along a little.

Now remember, both "Yanks" and "Johnnies"—all of them and their families are to be there at the Monument, near the old Green river battle ground of '63.

The entire day is to be spent in social converse with no distinction between "Johnnie" and "Yanks"—a love feast. Absolutely no speaking—only the old soldiers recollection of war incidents—no spell-binding. A string band and good singing of old war songs. The date, Saturday, June the 3rd, the Confederate decoration day. All who can bring flowers, do so.

We would like for all the old soldiers of both sides, who will attend, to notify us.

The Campbellsville, Lebanon, Liberty, Greensburg, Burkesville, Albany, Edmondton, Glasgow and Monticello papers will please copy the above, or give the facts.

Educational Conference and Fifth Convocation of Superintendents of the Western Kentucky State Normal School District, and dedication of new Van Meter Hall, and Administration building, takes place at Bowling Green, May 3, 4 and 5th. The dedicatory exercises will take place on May the 5th, and will have a state wide interest, and will be one of the greatest programs ever rendered in the history of Kentucky. These exercises and meetings of all general sessions will be held in the great new auditorium, which is the handsomest building in the south. The program is a very interesting one from first to last. The Governor, the Board of Regents of the Normal, Prof. P. P. Claxton, Dr. Elmer E. Brown, United States Commissioner of Education, and other notables will be there. Principals, teachers and friends are urged to attend this great Educational meeting, and aid in freeing our grand old state from the bonds of illiteracy. Parties of ten can get railroad rates at 2 cents per mile. Let me urge you to take this pleasant and profitable trip. I will be absent from my office during this meeting. People wishing to see me, call the following week.

Mr Crawford Before the Woodmen.

As was announced, Rev. J. R. Crawford preached a special sermon directed to the Woodmen of this place, last Sunday night. The organization attended in a body, and others who put in an appearance, filled the entire space of the Presbyterian church. The speaker took for his text the lowly Carpenter, reciting his life while upon earth, gave emphasis to the fact that he was not only the Savior of the world, but a mechanic who prided in his work. He drew many beautiful lessons from the character of the Carpenter of Nazareth. He then asked, "What would He do if He were here to-day?" answering the question by saying that he would go about doing good, and would oppose every thing that did not have for its object the elevation of man, though he would make no effort to become conspicuous, but would quietly move about, administering to the sick and the afflicted, giving words of consolation to those in trouble. The life of Christ was pictured most beautifully throughout.

The sermon was not only of great interest to the Woodmen, but to all who attended. Before beginning the discourse, Rev. J. A. Johnston read a Scripture lesson, and Rev. B. M. Currie offered a prayer. Miss Alice Walker was the organist, and Mr. G. W. Lowe accompanied her with the cornet. The choir was composed of members of the local Woodmen lodge.

L. W. T. S. Middleburg 4.

The L. W. T. S. Base Ball team defeated the strong Middleburg team last Saturday afternoon by the tune of 5 to 4. The game was well played with many brilliant plays on both sides. The game was featured by the pitching of Young who was especially strong with men on bases. Much praise can be given the Middleburg. They have a clean ball team and have a very strong Battery in Hatter and Wheat.

APIONEER JOURNEY.

Uncle Ben Carter Writes of Wagon Journey to the Southwest, Made in 1851.

The writer of this letter and four others which will follow, is a native of Adair county, and a half uncle of Mr. J. N. Coffey, of this place. He left this county many years ago. He now lives at St. Charles, Iowa.

Editor News:-

In the year 1851, myself and three other young men decided to make a wagon journey to the southwest. Inasmuch as times and customs have undergone great changes since that time, I have thought that an account of that journey would be of some interest to News readers.

Our party consisted of myself and three other young men, all of us intent on seeing the country and having a little fun before we settled down to the more serious problems of life. My home was then in Lawrence county, Mo., about 200 miles from Kansas City, which was to be our starting point. Two of our neighbors had business to transact with parties living about 50 miles from Kansas City, so they took a spring wagon with them and loaded us in with them and for their trouble they would accept nothing, but our thanks.

On arriving at Kansas City, which was then a town of 300 people, we paid 50 cents each for the privilege of laying on the hard floor—this was our lodging. The town, which is now a great metropolis, then had neither church nor school house. About four miles out was the town of Westport. We were informed that a man who lived there was going to start on a trip across the plains and wanted to hire a number of men to drive ox teams. So we went to see this man. Two of our party hired out to a man to help dig a cistern, the other and myself went to see the man, and the first question he asked us was whether we used profane language. We had to answer in the affirmative, and were informed that no one who swore could find employment there. We decided that we could quit the habit and hired out at $20 and board. On the second day out, my partner got mad, broke his promise, was paid off, and went back home, so of the four who started, I was the only one to stay. My boss was a fine man, a Methodist preacher, whose name was Alex Majors. He preached every Sunday, and never traveled on the Lord's day, when it could be avoided. He had a contract of hauling freight from Kansas City to Santa Fe, for which he received $9.75 per cwt. We spent over two weeks in loading these wagons with merchandise of different kinds, including 200 barrels of whiskey. To give your readers an idea of the size of these wagons, we could set eleven barrels on end on each wagon, then fill up the top part with boxes and other stuff. Our loads weighed from 65 to 72 hundred to the wagon. Business was on the boom, steamboats passed up and down the river every day. I remember two boat loads of Mormons that passed through with about 2,500 souls on their way to Utah to found Salt Lake City. Cholera had broken out among them, and they had about 25 or 30 dead bodies on the lower deck of the boat, and more than that number were dying. The groans of the poor wretches were something not easily forgotten. They landed at Ft. Leavenworth, and from there went across country to Salt Lake. While loading our wagons, I formed an acquaintance with an Indian that had been educated at Washington, D. C. He was a smooth card player and cleaned up every body who went up against him. I will have more to say of him later.

The Delaware Indians had a town just above the boat landing. Each day the young ladies would come down to catch us loading our boats. They dressed pretty much like the whites except in head gear. After our wagons were loaded we drove them ten miles from Kansas City. Next came the branding of the cattle. That was lots of fun and excitement. Each animal was branded with the letter "M" on the left hip. I presume your readers are all familiar with the methods of branding. The critter was lariatied by a man on horse back, another lariat around his hind leg served to stretch him out until the hot iron did the work.

The Poultry House.

A good type of house to accommodate twenty-five fowls, or thirty of the smaller breeds should be ten feet long by twelve feet wide, giving 120 feet of floor space, or four to five feet per fowl; the back four and one-half feet high, the front six feet. The peak, or highest point of the roof, to be four feet from the front, making one short and one long slope to the roof. The house should face the South, and the roosts extend across the north end, they should be placed about three feet from the floor, and the dropping board should be six inches below them. The door may be either on the east or west side as most convenient. The front is the important part, and should be of plank, one foot above the floor and one foot below the roof. The intervening open space should be covered with poultry netting of one inch mesh, inside of the house and covering the wire should be a curtain of burlap, this curtain can be tacked to a frame and hooked up out of the way in the day time, or can be made to roll up for the same purpose. This curtain should be let down at night and fastened, but put up in the day time to let the sun penetrate the interior.

If you wish to keep several hundred fowls, then a row of houses like this can be set some distances apart, and the space between them boarded up at the back and roofed over, then with wire netting at the front makes a scratching shed to each house. —Charlotte, N. C.

Poultry raising can be conveniently and profitably combined with dairying, fruit growing or gardening.

Farm Life Full of Gayeties.

After all the city is not the only place in the country where one may enjoy himself, for according to Mr. Jeremiah G. Kinder, of Kansas City, Kans., who was in Washington the past week.

"Those who think the life of the farmer is a humdrum existence, have not taken into account all the evidence in the case. When harvest time comes the excitement of farm life compares favorably with that of the 'Great White Way.' Out in Kansas, when the grain begins to ripen the automobile becomes not only a life but a crop saver. With the first flush of rosy dawn the farmer cranks up his machine and hies himself to the nearest railroad station, where he and half a dozen others enter into strong competition in the exciting task of picking tramps off the bumpers of the incoming trains, for immediate use in the harvest field. In some sections the first farmer to say 'Peck-a-boo, I see you,' to a ticketless traveler is entitled to him, while in others the bodily possession is the test of proprietorship. If that doesn't beat the frivolities and excitement of your amusement parlors, I do not understand your taste."

Medical Program.

The Adair County Medical Society will meet in Columbia, on Friday May 11th, 1911—2nd Friday at 10 o'clock, at which the following program will be rendered:

The 1911 Tobacco Crop.

"The outlook at present is that preparations are being made to plant as large a crop, in general of tobacco in the United States as is usual, except in some few sections. In the dark tobacco sections of Kentucky and Virginia there is at present a general feeling to plant a larger acreage than last year. The product of these sections has been selling for satisfactory prices to the farmers, and the 1910 crop is virtually out of the hands of the growers. The activity that has prevailed among the buyers of dark tobacco the past season has impressed the planters with the idea that the consumption is keeping ahead of the production, therefore the incentive for a large crop of dark tobacco. The future of the Burley is problematic, but everything indicates that an average crop will be attempted. It is generally believed that in the old belts of Virginia and North Carolina the usual acreage will be planted. In the cigar leaf growing states there will be no decrease of the acreage planted."—Western Tobacco Journal.

As Euthusiastic as Ever.

Senator Young of Iowa is back in Washington to attend the special session of Congress and in a recent interview brought up again his hobby of good roads.

"Good roads, said the Senator has become a notion—wide movement of so great importance that the people all through the middle West are taking it up with enthusiasm. The improvement of the highways is not only an economic but a social question as well. Farmers are their earnest support to the movement because they realize that good roads promote social intercourse and give their children an opportunity to mingle with their neighbors as they never did before. The boys and girls on the farm when they know they can get back and forth from their homes, are not so inclined to yearn for city. Farmers on roads that have been improved tell me that their lands have been increased $10 an acre in value.

"The automobile of course has had a great deal to do with the increased interest in the road question. Millionaires and men of prominence who never before gave highways much thought are becoming interested."

Out of the Ginger Jar.

A freckled person always wears specks. Did you notice that?

The wind often travels eighty miles an hour, and that too, without a ticket.

Much of what we call love at first sight fails when it comes to the second, sober view.

Many a man who is calling loudly for Justice would be in the county jail if he got it.

A word to the wise is sufficient, but a whole volume wouldn't convince the otherwise.

Some men are like a laying hen, they set up a big cackling every time they do anything.

It may be true that figures do not lie, but you cannot make a fashionable dressmaker believe it.

It is claimed that marriage is a lottery, but it cannot be true, else the law would take hold of it.

Time robs us of many things, but wounds our vanity first by introducing wrinkles and a double chin.

Men who owe all they have and all they are to an industrious, economical wife, too often leave her out when they boast of their success, as most successful men are prone to do.

Women may possibly not know enough to vote, though we don't admit it: but she certainly knows enough not to sell that vote to the first briber who may happen along.

Roundup.

Inspiration is usually due to the fact that we need the money.

A girl who isn't stylish may look swell when she has the mumps.

It's a pity that the average detective find clew.

Lots of people pose as peace-makers because of the opportunity it affords them to butt in.

Luck seems to have a mania for calling on people who are not expecting it.

As a matter of fact a young man is more apt to kiss a girl against her mother's will than against her own.

Great Britain has municipal tramways worth $229,381,000, and during the last year over $9,500,000 was paid in to holders of such stock.

All rights as to the importation of foreign goods into Japan, also as to patents, trade marks, and copyrights, are extended to Korea by the Japanese government.

An American in Tampico has discovered a method for extracting fiber from banana pants. This fiber absorbs more machine oil than cotton waste and is much cheaper.

Gumption on the Farm.

Steady, now! Don't rush into the spring work like a "house afire." Take things easy until man and beast get accustomed to the strain.

Here is the formula treating seed potatoes to prevent scab: Soak the whole seed potatoes for two hours in a mixture of one half pint of formalin and fifteen gallons of cold water; dry the seed, cut and plant in ground that has not recently grown potatoes

Sunflower Philosophy.

The bigger the salary the harder it is to find anyone who can earn it.

No man whose wife keeps boarders should try to save the country.

Some men are so close that it make them grouchy to lose money in a dream.

You can't square yourself with a dead man with flowers and a monument.

Ever know a woman who got as many buggy rides and flowers after marriage as before.

You may have noticed that the woman who knew you as an onery boy is usually possessed of a wonderful memory.

Why is it that a man who doesn't get along very well in a small town imagines he would be a great success in a city.

When a man's bald spot commences to show below his hat, it is time to take the rainy day proposition seriously.

You may think waiting for a train is a tiresome job, but that is because you never were a farmer waiting for rain during a drought.

Brain Leaks.

The bill of fare may be in French but that doesn't add any think to the taste of the ham and cabbage.

We always know a man lived, if, after death, it is truthfully said of him. "The children loved him."

People who waste time discussing what hell is never experience the pleasure of thinking about the joys of heaven.

The boss owes the employee something more than money, and the employee owes the boss something more than work.

When people complain of enui, they merely confess that they are tired of resting and are too lazy to do anything.

Just about the time you think you are the foremost man in the community, along comes an old settler and asks you if you have lived here long.

How to get Rich.

Live up to your engagement. Earn money before you spend it.

Never play at any game of chance.

Drink no kind of intoxicating liquor.

Good character is above everything else.

Keep your own secrets if you have any.

Never borrow if you can possibly avoid it.

Always speak the truth. Make few promises.

Keep good company or none. Never be idle.

Do not marry until you are able to support a wife.

Keep yourself innocent if you would be happy.

Ever live (misfortune excepted) within your income.

When you speak to a person look him in the face.

Make no haste to be rich, if you would prosper.

Save when you are young to spend when you are old.

Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts.

Domestic Superstitions.

If when washing dishes you forget an article it is a sign you will hear of a wedding.

If you using while making bread you will cry before it is eaten.

If your apron becomes untied it is an indication that somebody is speaking of you.

To forget to put coffee in the coffepot is the sign of a coming gift.

To accidentally place the teakettle on the stove with the spout toward the back is a sign of company.

If a coal of fire falls on the floor it is a sign a stranger is coming to see you.

If after sweeping a room the broom is accidentally left in a corner strangers will visit the house that day.

The Poultry Yard.

The March-hatched pullets will be the early layer.

Many incubator chicks are killed with kidney by being overfed and kept too warm.

You need not be afraid the hens will eat too much crushed shells. Let them have all they want.

Make it a rule to count biddies every day. Some folks never do this. They might be robbed and never know it.

I have heard the advice given to feed the chicks all they will eat up clean. That won't do. They will eat up clean (first week or two) more than they have any business eating.

Hard enough to sit for three weeks without having to be gnawed all the time by insects pest. Look at your sitting hens once in awhile and be sure they are free from enemies of this kind.

Notwithstanding there is a law against boys under eighteen buying cigaret papers they obtain and use them just the same as if there were no such law. A boy who has cultivated taste for smoking cigarets will lie to a dealer as to his age in order to get the poisonous papers to smoke. Nine out of ten will lie to the parents about smoking and the same number will invariably blow the smoke into the face of every body around them when they are smoking. The saddest feature of it all is their parents think it smart to see boys blowing their brains out through their nose. A law should be enacted which provides a heavy fine and imprisonment for every father who knowingly permits his boy to smoke cigarettes.—Tomkinsville News.

The Apple in Kentucky.

More varieties of apples are to be found within the State limits of Kentucky than possibly any of her adjacent sister States, probably because of the fact that so many kinds of soil and such varying topography are to be met with. Not all, however, of this extended list of kinds of apples may be, or have been profitably grown, but, as it is elsewhere, only a small proportion are planted by the experienced orchardist who is looking out for profit.

It is not for the lack of suitable locations for orchards, nor for want of congenial soils, that commercial orchards are not more abundant in Kentucky, but for want of experience in using the insecticides that are so indispensable now a-days to successful fruit-growing everywhere. In the Northern portion of the State especially in the counties of Hardin, Meade, Oldham, Bullitt and several others, the growers have been more progressive, and consequently more successful, and still larger territory will in all probability be used for the apple. Kentucky apples are well colored and have a very fine flavor, especially the standard kinds. Whenever growers come to the conclusion that they must begin to spray more, this grand old State will take a front rank beyond any doubt, as an apple State.

Depth at Which to Plant Corn.

The result of several year's work by the Department of Agriculture have demonstrated the impossibility of outlining a method of culture that will give the highest yield of corn per acre during all seasons. During the dry season of 1909, the average results in a number of tests showed a gain of 4.66 bushels per acre by planting corn 5 or 6 inches below the general level of the ground. Of 48 tests of deep planting and surface planting, 26 tests produced best by deep planting against 12 by level planting. For sections subject to dry weather during July and August deep planting is considered advisable. The furrows in which the young plants are growing should not be filled so as to level the ground until the root system of plants is well established.

THE ADAIR COUNTY NEWS

Published Every Wednesday

BY THE

Adair County News Company.
(INCORPORATED.)

CHAS. S. HARRIS EDITOR.

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interest of the City of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Post-office as second class mail-matter.

WED. APRIL 26, 1911.

Senator Paynter's reply to Congressman James is dignified and in keeping with the high position he holds and shows him to be a man who can do the right to an opponent even under provoking accusations. In fact he handles the Congressman's salty charges in the good samaritan spirit and places himself before his party as a true servant and not a dictator or egotist. Too long have Democrats impuned the motives and criticised Democratic officials on the slightest variations from their own peculiar or exalted ideas of honest, capable public service. Too long have aspirants sought to gain personal advantage by underrating an opponent or in making mountains out of mole hills when in fact they do not exist. The News is not in the Senatorial contest, but if it was its theory would be to measure the opponent by the same measure it would have applied to its choice. A campaign of charges against Senator Paynter is not likely to add much to the party nor increase the chances of the Congressman to win the nomination, while Senator Paynter's attitude will appeal strongly to the consideration of conservative Democrats.

John J. McNamara alleged to be the archconspirator in dynamiting the Times building, Los Angeles, Cal., last October, when so many men were killed, was arrested in Indianapolis last Saturday and hurried to the scene of the crime. Other arrests have been made in Detroit. McNamara is the Secretary and Treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron workers. It is generally believed that right men have been caught.

The Sub Committee of the Democratic Executive Committee met in Louisville last Wednesday and agreed that the Falls city should be headquarters for the committeemen who will look after the State primary. Rooms were secured at the Louisville Hotel. Hon. Ollie James and Hon. J. B. McCreary candidates for U. S. Senator and Governor respectfully, officially announced for positions by sending checks for their entrance fee.

Hon. William Addams, of Harrison county, announces his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor, giving some measures for which he will stand, through the News this week. He is a life long Democrat, a successful business man, and asks that his aspirations be given a careful consideration.

It matters not who we favor for the United States Senate, we take the opportunity of denouncing Senator Paynter's letter, in response to Hon. Ollie James' Nicholasville speech, a very smooth document.

W. S. Parker, assistant cashier of the Southern National Bank, Louisville, is short in his accounts $38,000. His family will pay him out.

Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn is being urged to become a candidate for United States Senator.

A Just Compliment.

Over in the Eleventh district, where the lamented Judge Counts was wont to exclaim that winter green grew only on the premises of Republicans, James Garnett, whose home is at Columbia, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General.

Jim Garnett is a young man but an experienced lawyer and ripe scholar. He was admitted to the bar in 1890, and formed a partnership with his father, the late Judge Jas. Garnett, a profound jurist, for the practice at Columbia.

In 1897 he was elected County Attorney of Adair county, and reelected four years later. As Adair is one of the strong "winter green" counties of the Eleventh district, the two elections of Mr. Garnett to the office of County Attorney evidenced his popularity, strength and capacity.

Mr. Garnett was elected a member of the State Central Committee in 1895, was re-elected several times, and continued to serve until 1908.

James Garnett is a splendid Speaker, a most affable gentleman and a Democrat of the old Jeffersonian school. In every campaign waged in Kentucky since attaining his majority his voice has been heard in defense of party principles and party nominees.

If nominated in the July primary he will be found doing his utmost to bring success to the State ticket.—Franklin Favorite.

BETTER THAN A SEAT IN CONGRESS

A Good, Easy, Comfortable Seat—and that is more than some Congressmen can boast of.

By this, we don't mean that the seat has cushion springs and is upholstered in real leather—
But we do mean that when a man gets on the seat of an he is in a position to do the best cultivating he ever did in his life. The Oliver No. 1 guides easier, and is raised, lowered and adjusted with greater facility and comfort than any machine ever built.

These are not simply "Claims". We can prove to you that they are "Facts".

Will you give us a chance?

WILLIAM ADDAMS,

Candidate for Governor, favors:

- 1.—Stringent educational laws that will secure more schools, better schools and better pay for the teachers in order to insure competency and such a system of schools as will insure equal opportunity to all children.
- 2.—Constitutional revision of the tax laws.
- 3.—All legislation necessary to bring the roads of Kentucky to the highest state of efficiency.
- 4.—State bank inspection.
- 5.—Bringing the militia up to the highest standard of efficiency and freeing same from politics.
- 6.—Organization and co-operation between farmers as well as among other laboring men, whether they labor in the field, factory, store, or wherever wage is earned.
- 7.—Such legislation as would improve the relation between capital and labor.
- 8.—The strict enforcement of that portion of Article 6 of the Constitution of the United States which reads as follows:
"No religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust."
- 9.—Election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people.
- 10.—The strict enforcement of all laws on the Statute books.

Nervous Women

For nervous, tired women, we recommend Cardui. Cardui is a woman's medicine. It acts specifically on the female organs and has a tonic, building effect on the whole system. It contains no harmful ingredients, being a pure vegetable extract. If you suffer from some form of female trouble, get Cardui at once and give it a fair trial.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. W. W. Gardner, of Paducah, Ky., tried Cardui and writes: "I think Cardui is just grand. I have been using it for eleven years. I am 48 years old and feel like a different woman, since I have been taking it. I used to suffer from bearing down aches, nervousness and sleeplessness, but now the pains are all gone and I sleep good. I highly recommend Cardui for young and old." Try it.

E. J. Walters

Bradfordton, Ill.

As I have never seen a letter from this town in the News, I thought I would pen a few lines.

The village I am about to write of stands just five miles west of Springfield on the B. & O. S. W. R. R., and is beautifully situated, with about 15 inhabitants, 4 dwelling houses, 1 elevator, 1 store, and 1 Blacksmith shop, so you can see by this that Bradfordton is quite a thriving little town, with plenty of room to grow.

Mr. N. R. Waggener, formerly of Kentucky, but now a resident of Illinois, is comfortably located 1 mile southwest of Bradfordton.

Mr. Wade Eubank, of your town, has selected himself a location at Riddle Hill, 9 miles west of Springfield. Mr. Eubank is a promising young man and should do well in this country, as his skill demands a good price.

Mrs. G. P. Handy has recovered from her illness, and seems to be getting very well satisfied.

Mr. Elmer Wells and family visited the writer yesterday, the 9th. Ernest and Moody Brockman have purchased one lot each in Springfield, and will erect houses on them in the near future.

There have been several of the Kentucky boys that came out here in the winter, but they took heart failure and returned to their homes. That is right boys, stay with your mothers, for they are the best friends you have.

Robert Waggener, son of Mr. John Waggener, of near Columbia, is employed by Mr. Geo. Gregory, near Bradfordton.

I was sorry to see the notice of Mr. Henry Todd's illness, but hope he is better by this time.

I will close for this time, for I fear if my letter is too long I will be sent to the waste basket.

Yours truly,

John Brockman.

The Wisdom of a King.

Alfonso, king of Aragon, went one day it is said, to a jeweler to purchase some diamonds for presents to a foreign prince. He was accompanied by several courtiers, and the jeweler spread his finest diamonds and other precious stones before them without hesitation. The king, after making his purchases, retired, but he had scarcely left the house when the jeweler came after him and requested he would do him the honor to return for a moment, as he had something important to say to him. The king and his courtiers re-entered, and the jeweler then said that a diamond of great value had been taken by some one of his attendants.

Alfonso looked sternly at those who accompanied him, saying: "Whichever of you has stolen the diamond, he deserves the most severe punishment, but the publication of his name might tarnish the reputation of an honorable family. I will spare them that disgrace." He then desired the jeweler to bring a large pot full of bran. When it was brought he ordered everyone of his attendants to to plunge his right hand closed into the pot and draw it out quite open. It was done, and the bran being sifted the diamond was found.

Midnight in The Ozarks

and yet sleepless Hiram Scranton, of Clay City, Ill., coughed and coughed. He was in the mountains on the advice of five doctors, who said he had consumption, but found no help in the climate, and started home. Hearing of Dr. King's New Discovery, he began to use it. "I believe it saved my life," he writes "for it made a new man of me. so that I can now do good work again." For all lung diseases, coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, whooping cough, hay fever, hemorrhages, hoarseness or quinsy, its the best known remedy. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. MILD, GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR WOMEN GIVEN FREE

So many of the ills of women are due to habitual constipation, probably because of their false modesty on the subject, that their attention cannot be too strongly called to the importance of keeping the bowels open. It is always important to do that, regardless of the sex, but it is especially important in women.

From the time the girl begins to menstruate until mensturation ceases she has always vastly better prospects of coming through healthy if she watches her bowel movements. If you find yourself constipated, with bad breath, pimply complexion, headaches, belching gas and other symptoms of indigestion and constipation, take a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup

Pepsin. It is woman's favorite laxative. You will find that you can do away with salts, strong cathartics, etc., which are entirely unsuited to woman's requirements.

Mrs. Katherine Haberstroh of McKees Rocks, Pa., and Mrs. A. E. Herrick of Wheeler, Mich., who was almost paralyzed in her stomach and bowels, are now cured by the use of this remedy. A free sample bottle can be obtained by addressing Dr. Caldwell, and after you are convinced of its merits buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

For the free sample address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

R. O. MULLIGAN.

Gradyville.

J. A. Diddle was at Greensburg, a day or so the first of the week.

William Sexton was on the sick list a day or so the first of the week.

H. A. Moss, of Greensburg, was here Wednesday.

Neil & Nell are prizing a lot of good tobacco this week.

C. O. Moss spent one day last week on his farm in the Cool Spring community.

Remember the Missionary Meeting here, on Saturday and Sunday The fifth Sunday in this month.

Miss Mildred Walker is visiting relatives in Columbia, this week.

Lewis Cabbell, the well-known insurance man of Miami, was in our city one day last week, working insurance.

Mrs. G. T. Flowers, J. A. Diddle, J. D. Walker, with several others of our citizens, were transacting business in Columbia, a day or so of last week.

Mr. Warren Sexton and family will leave us in a few days, for McGregor, Texas, where they will make their future home.

Mr. George H. Nell, one of our up-to-date farmers, has the record of having the nicest prospect for an early garden in this section.

Mr. Albert Parson, the noted mill man, of this place, will begin work in a few days on his dwelling, in our city.

Mesdames George Atkins and Rollin Browning, of Milltown, were in our midst one day last week shopping.

Mr. J. F. Pendleton received a nice lot of fat hogs here last Tuesday, at 5 cents, preparatory for the Louisville market.

Mr. C. M. Hindman, of the Milltown community, was in our midst last Thursday, buying fertilizer. Mr. Hindman informed us that he was about ready for planting. We must say here that he is one of our best farmers, and always grows an abundance of every thing on the farm.

Mr. J. D. Walker has one of the finest colts that we have seen this spring. It is certainly a good one. It is a coach.

The last few days of sunshine certainly got a move on our farmers, and they made good use of time in the way of plowing, harrowing and other ways of preparing the soil for planting. Up to this time there has been very little corn planted. The prospect for a wheat crop is very flattering in this community, and if nothing befalls the crop with the amount of 2,000 bushels of old wheat our mill men, Messrs. Diddle & Parson have in stock at this time, we are certainly sure of plenty of cake another year. The tobacco plants our farmers inform us are plentiful, and there is no doubt but what there will be an average crop transplanted if the season will admit. The low prices do not discourage them while the panic is on any way.

Your reporter is just in receipt of a letter from Mr. Euphratus Harper, a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Harper, of our city. Euphrates left us four years ago for the state of Texas, locating at Moody. He likes the state fine, and is getting along nicely. He also informed us that he was united in the wholly bonds of wedlock on the 12th, with one of the finest ladies in the Lone Star State. We have been informed that the lady young Mr. Harper married is very wealthy. We are always glad to hear of our Adair county boys doing well. Success to you and yours, Euphrates.

Mr. Martin W. Roach, a former citizen of Adair county, was married in Moody, Texas, Wednesday, April the 12th, to Mrs. Lillie M. Gorman. The groom is a very prosperous farmer, and the bride's one of Moody's best women.

Russell Creek.

Most of the farmers are ready to go to planting corn as soon as the ground gets dry enough.

Mr. W. F. Squires was on the sick list last week.

Mr. T. B. Hood was in Campbellsville last week on business.

Your scribe and Mr. Bill Hood were in Greensburg last Monday on business.

Mr. Henry Squires of this neighborhood, but now of Knifley, was visiting his parents last Sunday. Mr. Squires told your reporter that his brother-in-law went a wild duck hunting and killed thirteen ducks at four shots. That was a good shot who can beat that?

Mrs. Jennie Smith and daughter, Miss Bessie are visiting at Sperlington and Elkhorn.

Mr. Henry Moore of Cane Valley was visiting in this neighborhood last Sunday.

Rev. Luther Young will preach at Hutchison school house the 5th Sunday.

Mrs. W. T. Shearer and children were visiting at Knifley last week.

Mr. Will Edd Squires and sister were visiting at Knifley last week.

LOCUST GROVE STOCK FARM

RAVEN BIRD

Sired by Red Bird 1956, he by Cabell's Joe Brown 1955, he by Cabell's Lexington 3234, by Gist's Black Hawk.

1st dam Authilia Thompson, by Thompson's Lexington, he by Cabell's Lexington 3234 by Gist's Black Hawk. 2nd dam by Caldwell's Denmark, he by King Denmark. 3rd dam Bonie, by Old Nat Brown 81.

Raven Bird is a beautiful mahogany bay full 16 hands high, 5 years old, he has the best of eyes feet and legs, a beautiful head and neck, a very heavy well set tail, which he at all times carries to perfection. He possesses extreme speed, style and action, and the most perfect disposition of any stallion I have ever seen or handled. He has fine distinct gaits, and goes them all in a most attractive manner. You will note from his breeding that he has for his sire the famous old Red Bird, who has perhaps sired as many high class show, and sale horses as any scallion in Kentucky, and traces on his dam's side to Cabell's Lexington, conceded by all horsemen to be one of the greatest sires that ever lived. Raven Bird is one of Red Bird's greatest sons, and has proven himself an excellent breeder, and we have every reason to believe that, if he is given an opportunity he will make a reputation equal to that of his worthy sire. Service fee $15.00 to insure a living colt.

Alexander's Artist 4517 A. S. H. R.

Sired by Fayette Artist 4516 he by Kentucky Artist 1455, he by Artist Montrose 51, he by Artist 75 by King William 67.

1st dam Louise Cabell 5900 by Red Squirrel 53. 2nd dam Juella C. 1304 by Jewel Denmark 70, by Washington Denmark 64. 3rd dam by Dew drop, by Cabell's Lexington. Alexander's Artist is a beautiful red chestnut, four years old, 15½ hands high. You will note from the above that there are few if any better Stallions in Kentucky. He is a grand individual and in every way as good as his breeding. He is thoroughly broken to double and single harness, and nicely gaited, in fact he is a combined horse of high class, and presents a magnificent appearance any where you place him. His future as a show horse and as a producer of saddle horses, will compare most favorably with the best. Fee, $12.50 to insure a living colt.

Marion

Marion is a black Jack with white points, 5 years old, 15 hands high, extra good length, heavy bone and foot, good head and ears. He has lots of substance, in fact he has all of the desirable features of a first-class Jack. He has proven himself very sure and a most excellent breeder. Service fee $10.00 to insure a living colt.

The above described stock will do service at my barn in Columbia.

I am prepared to take care of mares sent to me from a distance. Mares pastured at $2.00 per month, or fed at $8.00. In all cases money is due and must be paid, when mares are bred to other stock, traded, parted with or removed from the neighborhood. All stock will receive my personal attention, and due care will be taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but will not be responsible should any occur.

A. S. Chewning,

Columbia, Ky.

her niece at Bliss Mrs. Charlie Browning.

Miss Anna Todd is on the sick list at this writing.

Sewelltown.

Wheat crops are looking fine in this location. Most of people are ready to plant corn as soon as the ground is dry enough.

Mrs. Mary Kerns has been confined to her room for several days with pneumonia fever.

Prayer meeting at Wooldridge school house is improving fine. H. C. Rogers, merchant is doing a good business.

Jordan Peacock.

This noted Saddle Stallion will make the present season at Gradyville, Ky., and will serve mares at the low price of $15.00 to insure a mare with foal. Jordan is in fine shape, looks like a colt. He is so well known that he needs no introduction to the public. He is known from the Pacific to the Atlantic Ocean. Jordan has sired from 50 to 100 colts every year for 14 years, and most all of them have been sold from weanlings to 4-year-olds at from $100 to $2,000. There has been a goodly number of them sold from 500 to $1,000. There has been over One Hundred Thousand Dollars paid to the people of Adair and joining counties for this horse's colts.

I will also stand NOBLE PEACOCK, a son of Jordan Peacock, on the same terms as Jordan Peacock. NOBLE is a very fine young horse. He was shown in two rings at the Columbia Fair, last year and won each time. There were 8 entries in one ring and Noble won the blue tie. His first dam was by Artist Jewel, 2nd dam by Cromwell Denmark, 3rd dam by Artist 75. From the above breeding you will see there is no better bred one living than NOBLE PEACOCK.

I will also stand 2 fine Jacks, HIGHWAY and BLACK DIAMOND at $10.00 to insure a mare with foal. Highway's colt won the blue at the Columbia Fair last year, and several of them sold for $100 at weaning time. These are the best Jacks that I have ever seen in Adair County.

BLACK DIAMOND is under 3 years old. Every one that has looked at him say that he is the best one they have ever seen.

Money due in all cases when the mare is traded or moved from the neighborhood. (Plug mares will not be bred to this stock.)

Feed at 25 cents per day or pasture after April 20th at 50 cents per week.

Respectfully,

W. L. Grady.

ARWED

This fine Coach Horse will make the season of 1911 at J. C. Browning's barn, near Milltown, and will be permitted to serve mares at the low sum of $10.00 to insure a living colt. ARWED is a fine breeder, and has some of the best colts in Adair County. When a mare is known to be in foal and is traded or sold, the season must be paid.

JACK CHINN

as fine a Jack as there is in this section, will make the season at same place and will serve mares at $6.00 to insure a living colt. He is well known as a breeder and needs no boosting.

J. C. Browning.
